The Crown
Author: Shantdas Manandhar
Illustrator: Sangi Shreshtha
Translator: Brian Kavanagh

The red rooster has a red crown.
"Where is my crown?"

I asked the rooster for his crown.
Shaking his head the rooster said, "No, I will not give you my red crown."

The multi-colored peacock has a blue crown.
"Where is my crown?"

I asked the peacock for his crown.
Shaking his head the peacock said, "No, I will not give you my blue crown."

The white crane has a white crown.
"Where is my crown?"

I asked the crane for her crown.
Shaking her head the crane said, "No, I will not give you my white crown."

"Enough, rooster, enough!"

"Enough, peacock, enough!"

"Enough, crane, enough! I will not take your crowns."

"I don't need anyone else's crown. I will wear my own crown!"

The Crown (English)

A young boy sees that many beautiful birds have a crown.

What will he do to get his own?

This is a Level 2 book for children who recognize familiar words and can read new words with help.
